IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE SIDE
CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO.2761 OF 2006

Mrs. Farhana Zakir Parmar .... Petitioner
Vs.
State of Maharashtra & Ors. .... Respondents

Ms Daksha M. Shah for the Petitioner.
Ms U.V. Kejariwal, APP, for the State.

CORAM: R.M.S. KHANDEPARKAR &
A.A. SAYED, JJ.
DATED: NOVEMBER 27, 2007

P.C:

The learned APP, on instructions, states that there is no complaint disclosing cognizable offence registered with the police against the petitioner or her husband. Though the missing report was recorded by the father of the petitioner, since the petitioner herself has filed the present petition, the police are satisfied that the petitioner is not missing, as was sought to be alleged by the father of the petitioner. Neither the petitioner nor her husband is required in any case before any police station as the matter stands today. We accept the said statements made by the learned APP and in view of those statements, nothing survives in this petition. The petition is accordingly disposed of while accepting the said statements.
